So what are we trying to prove?
By wasting 30 seconds thinking about a little German man.
With a little German mustache at this very expensive little workshop.

It's to illustrate the fact that your mind is full of Nazis.
Negative thoughts and energies which endeavor together to contaminate your goals.

You'll say to yourself:

"Don't think about missing the lead."

You'll think about missing the lead.

"Don't think about losing your commission."

You'll think about losing your commission.

"Don't think about the DOW."

"Don't think about the NASDAQ.

Don't think about the mortgage crisis.

Don't think about how fat you feel.

How old you look, how stupid you sound."

You try to push these thoughts out of your mind and here they come, wearing brown shirts, marching in unison, pushing back.

It's impossible.

Right?

Ah...

But I can tell what many of you are thinking.

You're thinking: "Hey, didn't Susan tell us earlier today that NOTHING is impossible?

Does she no longer believe it?"

Not only do I still believe it. But I order you to go home tonight, get your dictionary, cross out the word "impossible"

Cross it out!

Heck, tear out the whole damn page.

Because you are—now listen to this carefully:

You and you alone are the dictator of your own mind.

(gestures to her head)

Nothing is up here that you don't want to be

And nothing is impossible if you put your mind to it.

And that about brings us to lunch.

There's coffee and finger sandwiches upstairs for those of you who purchased the meal package. Please remember to return your chairs so we can continue renting this beautiful space.
