

Upcoming Workshop with Rinde Eckert—SIGN UP TODAY

Tues. Mar. 20th from 9:00-10:30a in *Meet in Theatre Building Lobby (25 total slots available)

Rinde Eckert will be performing at Hancher on March 21st. On Tuesday, March 20th, he will host a short workshop and a Q&A for our students.

Rinde is an astonishing performing artist – singer, writer, musician, composer, and director. He has led Partnership in the Arts twice. He has established an international performing career that has exploded over the past decade. He is also an alum and a terrific teacher. He will lead a “simple series of exercises in interdisciplinary perception” followed by the Q&A session.

Actors, directors, playwrights, and dramaturgs are strongly encouraged to attend. Participation in the exercises is not mandatory; those who wish to observe the exercise are welcome to attend the workshop.

To Sign Up: Please click here to go to sign up sheet.