

Info_Notes On Drowning

Title	Notes On Drowning (For The Man Who Cannot Make The Journey)
Playwright	Jen Silverman
Director	Alex Scott
Category	Gallery
First Rehearsal	August 31
Load-In/Tech	TBA
Dress Rehearsals	TBA
Open	October 1
Close	October 4
Holiday Conflicts	9/07 Labor Day 9/19-20 Rosh Hashanah 9/20 Eid al Fitr 9/28 Yom Kippur 10/3-9 Sukkot
Roles to be Cast	Adam (M 25-30) - A struggling poet hiding the truth about his current alternative relationship. - A struggling poet hiding the truth about his current alternative relationship. Emma (F 35-38) - His over protective, intrusive older sister. - His over protective, intrusive older sister. Marie (F 20-25) - His French Lover. She is Dead and very pretty. She is his inspiration. - His French Lover. She is Dead and very pretty. She is his inspiration.
Notices	Please note that all actors should be prepared to work with water as a key element of the production. The Actor playing Adam must be comfortable with changing costumes on stage in front of an audience. Knowledge of the French language is helpful, but not required.

The role of Marie may require smoking on stage.